

4th-6th Summer Reading 2016

All assignments due: September 30, 2016

Incoming 4th grade students are to read 10 age appropriate books over the summer vacation and fill out a Reading Log. The books may be fiction or nonfiction. In addition, they must choose at least one book and complete a book report. The Reading Log and Book Report will count towards their Language Arts grade towards their first report card.

Incoming 5th grade students are to read 7 age appropriate chapter books over the summer vacation. The books may be fiction or nonfiction. In addition, they must choose at least one book and complete a book report. The Reading Log and Book Report will count towards their Language Arts grade towards their first report card.

Incoming 6th grade students are to read 5 age appropriate chapter books over the summer vacation. The books may be fiction or nonfiction. In addition, they must choose at least one book and complete a book report. The Reading Log and Book Report will count towards their Language Arts grade towards their first report card.

The number of books have been altered per grade level due to the length of time it would take students to complete age appropriate books. 4th graders are still reading less time consuming books that their older peers.

Please use necessary caution and vigilance when choosing your child's reading material. For students who struggle and generally dislike reading as a pastime, it is a good idea to get him/her hooked on a series.
