

St. Johns Unified School District #1

Job Description

Title: High School Special Education Teacher (9th-12th grade)

Description: The special education teacher at the high school level will be responsible for working with a variety of special needs students. The teacher will be responsible for writing high school level student IEPs, attending all meetings specific to their assigned students, providing remedial education, coordinating with general education teachers regarding adaptation of material, and overseeing educational assistants that will also support the special needs student.

Qualifications:

Works well with high school students.

Understands different teaching methods and knows which method works better for a given special needs student.

Maintain a professional relationship with co-workers.

Well organized with paperwork

The applicant must hold or work towards obtaining a Special Education certification in Arizona.

Reports To: High School Principal