

“Girls Got Game Conference”

On Tuesday, February 17, 2016, a group of female student athletes from Upland High School attended the Foothill Citrus Athletic Director’s Association second annual Women in Sports conference/Girls Got Game in Rancho Cucamonga, California.

This group of student-athletes enjoyed a day of history, motivation, inspiration, and fun. During the seminar portion of the conference, they heard from Leah O’Brian and Jen Schroeder, both world-renowned softball players.
