DOMINICK P CONSOLO LIBERAL ARTS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Dominick Consolo was born in Ridgway in 1922, was a professional jazz trumpeter and taught at Denison University for 34 years. According to his student Michael Eisner, former CEO of Disney, Dom's style of teaching was the basis for the movie "Dead Poets Society". Dom is remembered for his dynamic teaching style, his passion for literature and his ability to engage his students, many of whom credit him with changing their lives.

TERMS FOR SCHOLARSHIP

The committee will grant the Dominick Consolo Memorial Scholarship Fund as instructed. The selection of students to receive scholarship grants shall be made by the committee without regard to race, religion or sex of the applicants or their political or economic perspectives. The committee will not place restrictions upon a candidate's choice of college or university.

The committee shall require, prior to the disbursement of any scholarship, proof that the scholarship recipient is actually enrolled as a student at the educational institution for which the grant is made, and all scholarship grants shall be paid only to the education institution attended by the recipient and never directly to the recipient. This grant covers tuition, fees, and books for the applicable fall, winter, or spring quarter.

The Elk County Community Foundation is approved as a PATH Program participant.

If you are awarded a scholarship of at least $500 from the Community Foundation, we will submit your name to AES/PHEAA for additional scholarship funding through PATH. To be eligible for the PATH award, you must meet the following criteria: be enrolled in an approved Pennsylvania college or career school; be a State Grant recipient and have a Federal Student Loan; and demonstrate financial need for PATH Program Grant. PATH grants will not exceed the Maximum State Grant for the particular academic year.
