Student attire should not present health or safety hazards and should not disrupt the educational process. We rely upon your good judgment and discretion as in what your child should wear to school. However, faculty and administration of Red Rock Elementary School reserve the right to make the final decision as in the suitability of any attire and to decide when attire violates the school code. If any parent has a situation that makes it impossible to adhere to any portion of the dress code, please set up an appointment with Administration.
