

Ridgway Middle - High School Principal Position

The Ridgway Area School District is seeking a strong instructional leader for the Ridgway Middle & High School (RMHS). RMHS consists of a middle school including grades 6-8, a high school with grades 9-12 and a total enrollment of 407 students. RMHS has a tradition of high achieving performance and student growth. In 2018, RHS was named a National Blue Ribbon High School for exemplary achievement. The RMHS Principal is a 220-day position with terms and benefits established through an Administrative Compensation Plan (ACP). The anticipated start date is July 1, 2021.

The successful candidate will be an instructional leader who has a sincere interest in working with students, faculty/staff and the community; has an understanding of the importance of effective instructional and assessment practices; and an ability to analyze data and synthesize instructional recommendations based on the data. The successful candidate will possess supervisory experiences related to the Danielson Model (or one of a similar nature); a demonstrated ability to lead a school through implementation of initiatives; documented successful administrative experience; the ability to work effectively with stakeholders; skills that foster collaborative leadership; knowledge of effective health and safety practices in secondary setting; strong communication skills; knowledge of the change process; and a professional practice based on integrity and ethics. In addition, the successful candidate must possess a Secondary Principal Certificate or a K-12 Principal Certificate; demonstrated success as a PA middle level or secondary teacher; and preferred building level administrative experience as an assistant principal or principal.

To apply applicants must have a completed packet that includes the following: cover letter, resume, standard PA application (typed), three signed current letters of recommendation (within the last three months), administrative certificate, and transcripts. Successful candidates must be able to obtain employable Act 34, 151, and FBI Clearances. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
