Dear Parents of Juniors:

The No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 & the Armed Forces Recruiting Act require school districts to provide basic student contact information to military recruiters. Basic information would include student names, addresses, and telephone numbers. The Otto Eldred School District will provide this information on the Junior & Senior year students unless a parent has "opted out" of providing such information.

If it is your desire to not have your child's basic information released for military recruiting purposes, please indicate so by placing a check next to the statement below, signing, and returning the statement to the Otto Eldred High School Guidance Office as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Martha Wolf

School Counselor

I do not want my child's basic information released to the military services for recruiting purposes.
