Quote of the Day: All you need is the plan, the road map, and the courage to press on to your destination. Earl Nightingale

College Readiness Tip: Make connections with students in your classes. One of my best students said his technique in the first week of classes was to meet at least one new person in each of his classes. It expanded his network of friends and was a crucial resource at times when he had to miss a class.

Now please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance" (Count to 5 and begin)
