“Soaring Ever Higher”

“Christ, my hope, has risen. Alleluia!” (Easter Sequence)

Dear Families,

And so we have begun our journey through Lent as a school community. We celebrated Ash Wednesday Mass with the residents at Belle Meade. Fr. John Forbes was the main celebrant, Deacon Stephen assisted, and Fr. Jonathon was on the altar as well. Fifth grade students read beautifully, the choir sang wonderfully, the servers were attentive and reverent, and the congregation, which included parents, participated with fervor. Though we have heard the readings often before from the prophet Joel, Psalm 51, St. Paul to the Corinthians, and St. Matthew's Gospel on the true nature of fasting, praying, and almsgiving, they were so incredibly impactful. What a wonderful privilege we all enjoy to be provided with such an apt and suitable commencement to this journey together. May we continue on that journey each day to grow closer to Christ and more united in our efforts to live lives of true holiness. We continue forward with confident faith that “Christ our hope, has risen, Indeed!”

~Caritas in veritate, John Donohue
