DUPLICATING COPYRIGHTED MATERIALS

Section 1. Works Protected by Copyright

Copyright protection extends to literary works, musical works, dramatic works, pantomimes and choreographic works, pictorial, graphic, and sculptural works, computer programs, motion pictures and other audiovisual works, including television and sound recordings.

Unpublished works by U.S. and foreign authors are protected by the new copyright statute, as are published works by U.S. authors. The published works of foreign authors are subject to copyright under certain conditions, including coverage under national treaties such as the Universal Copyright Convention.

U.S. government works are excluded. The new law does not change the basic premise of prior law that works produced for the U.S. government by its officers and employees are not subject to copyright.

Section 2. Infringement

One who violates the rights of the copyright owner is a copyright infringer. Remedies available to the copyright holder for infringement include damages (actual or statutory, the latter set by statute from $100 to $50,000), injunction, recovery of court costs and attorney's fees.

Section 3. Permission to Duplicate

Any staff member of the School District shall consult with the media person in his/her building and/or the Supervisor of Curriculum & Instruction responsible for Media Services or principal to verify that duplicating of a particular material is permitted or to obtain permission for the copying of such material.
