

Ken was born on December 30, 1930 in Two Rivers, WI. After graduating from high school in his birthplace, he attended the University of Wisconsin, Madison where he studied accounting and participated in Naval ROTC. Following graduation from the University, he served 2 years in the Navy. Upon discharge from the service, he went to work as a tax auditor for the State of Wisconsin and remained in that position until he retired in 1993.

He married Carole Schwenk in 1968 and they were blessed with two children. From 1968-1997, Ken and his family lived in Racine, WI where they attended Lutheran Church of the Resurrection. During those 29 years, Ken served as Church Treasurer and then as a Deacon.

Ken and his wife retired and moved to The Villages, FL in August 1997. They joined First Baptist Church, Leesburg and Ken volunteered as a counselor in their benevolence center weekly for 12 years. In 2005, Ken and his wife joined Grace Presbyterian Church, Ocala where he participated in various events and activities until declining health prevented him from doing so. In 2017, when traveling became burdensome, Ken and his wife joined Trinity Lutheran Church, Summerfield, FL. Ken is survived by Carole, his wife of 51 years; his daughter, Lorelle Blezek; his son, Kedrick Strutz; his sister, Nancy Good, and 7 grandchildren.
