

Business OperationsSummer School Fees

Students who fail classes and are required to take summer school classes out of district shall be expected to pay their own tuition and travel expenses. If Springfield Platteview Community Schools provides summer school instruction, the tuition charges shall be based upon the actual costs incurred in operation and will not be intended to provide a financial profit for the district. A waiver of fees/tuition may be allowed for students who qualify.

Date of Adoption: September 13, 2010