

Personnel - All Employees

Absence From Building

1. Employees may not be absent from their respective assignments during duty hours except by permission of their immediate supervisor or Superintendent. Employees shall check out of the building whenever absent during the day, including during their duty-free lunch. All absences from the building except for the duty-free lunch and assigned school duties will be charged as the appropriate leave.

Date of Adoption: November 8, 2010