Tenure

Teachers and administrators who hold duly authorized and issued certificates and who are employed half time or more, have a continuing contract right as provided by law.

Certificated employees who are substitute teachers do not qualify for continuing contract rights as provided by law.

Probationary certificated employees are teachers or administrators who have served under a contract for less than three successive school years and the contract of such employee shall be renewed and remain in full force and effect unless amended or not renewed as provided by law.

The contract of a permanent certificated employee shall be deemed continuing and remain in full force and effect unless terminated as provided by law.
