

2021 Kracher Family Memorial Scholarship for the Skilled Trades

Klem Kracher lived in the country in Sarpy County his whole life. He was a farmer and construction worker. He loved motorcycles and cars. Jeannine, his wife, grew up in Papillion. Her father owned Megel & Sons, a coal, lumber, feed, and farm implement business. All of their children - Karen, Jim, Barbara and Beverly - graduated from Platteview High School. Karen excels at administration. Jim loved cars and motorcycles, went to school at Milford Community College, and graduated in tool and die. Barbara is a fiber enthusiast. Beverly is a university professor.

The Kracher Family Memorial Scholarships for the Skilled Trades are in Klem and Jim's memory. They are funded by the family. There is one scholarship for $500.
