Member Expectations of Platteview National Honor Society

Membership in the Platteview High School Chapter of the National Honor Society involves dedication and commitment on the part of its members. Because it is recognized as a service organization, members must have the time, the interest, and the desire to provide service to others. In order to maintain the ideals of excellence in scholarship, leadership, character, and service, all members of the National Honor Society will be required to provide service both inside and outside of the school setting and maintain the highest standards associated with scholarship leadership, and character. Students interested in membership should seriously consider the responsibility connected to the privilege of membership.

THE STUDENT AND PARENT MUST SIGN BELOW - FAILURE TO DO SO WILL RESULT IN ELIMINATION FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION IN THE SELECTION PROCESS

I have read the above information and understand that if I am selected as a member of the Platteview High School chapter of the National Honor Society, I will be required to be an active participant in all aspects of the organization. I also understand that if I do not fulfill requirements set by the chapter leadership, or if I am involved in disciplinary measures involving school, school activities, or a violation of local or state statutes, my membership in the Platteview chapter of the National Honor Society will be reviewed and possibly revoked.

Selection Process:

Students who have a minimum 3.5 (unweighted) cumulative GPA are eligible to fill out this information packet. The information packet must be turned in by February 26 at 4:00 PM to their shared folder. If not, the student is no longer included in the application process. Once an application is turned in, it becomes the property of Platteview High School.

Students will also be required to do a timed write on February 17 or February 24. This will be a 20-minute essay on the topic of Service.

Students will also need to turn in a 2 - 3 minute video explaining why they think they would be an excellent candidate for Platteview High School's National Honor Society. This video must be uploaded to YouTube and the link sent to nhsadvisor@springfieldplatteview.org. The video may remain private.

All High School faculty members will be asked to fill out the rubric on candidate students. Students must receive 21 points on the rubric without receiving a score below a 3 in the 5 point areas and below a 2 in the 3 point areas to advance to the Faculty Council screening.

The Faculty Council will meet to watch the video, view faculty input, and view the student's application to determine the selection status of each candidate.

All students will receive a letter stating their selection status.

Non-selection:

"Parents and students must understand that no student has a right to be selected for membership in a chapter of National Honor Society, and that the Faculty Council is entrusted with making selection decisions..."

"Schools are not obligated to share with parents and students, information concerning non-election of specific students. According to NASSP(National Association of Secondary School Principals) legal council, no constitutional due process requirements apply in non-selection cases."

"The National Council and the NASSP shall not review the judgement of the Faculty Council regarding selection of individual members to local chapters."
