Before joining Fitness in July 2012, Muir most recently served as the beauty news editor at Allure, where she was responsible for keeping tabs on all the latest product news, beauty innovations, and hair and makeup trends. Muir began her career as a beauty editor at Cosmopolitan, where she was heard regularly as a beauty expert on Sirius XM's Cosmo Radio and co-wrote the book Cosmo's Sexiest Beauty Secrets: The Ultimate Guide to Getting Gorgeous. At her next position as the beauty editor at Seventeen, Muir directed photo shoots and provided beauty commentary for backstage fashion show videos. She has served as an Allure beauty source for local television news programs across the country, and her blog posts for allure.com have been picked up by Yahoo!, Yahoo! Shine, and New York magazine's The Cut.

Who was Heather's favorite teacher in high school and why?

Muir said in high school her favorite teacher was "MA." He always pushed her to be a better writer, which eventually helped her achieve her goals in magazine journalism. Under Mr. Andolina, Muir served as the editor-in-chief for both the Connumach yearbook and Contowniannews magazine, which was a great learning experience. MA's fun and innovative teaching style gave her a taste of journalism, which led her down the path to pursue a career as a writer and beauty editor - one of the best decisions she has ever made.

What is Heather's fondest memory from Conemaugh Township High School?

When asked what her fondest memory at Conemaugh Township was, Muir said she loved cheering at Friday night football games, going to dances with her best friends, and participating on the Outdoor Grill Team.
