

John Duray is a Davidsville native and a 2002 Conemaugh Township graduate. Upon graduation, John attended Duke university for 4 years where he was awarded the ROTC scholarship. Duray then went on to train for 5 years as a pilot for the United States Airforce.

Aside from piloting, John has had a very accomplished career in the military, holding many esteemed titles and jobs. Duray looks back at his time spent at Conemaugh Township fondly saying, "Sports were a major part of my high school career. I was a member of the basketball and baseball teams." John also expressed how important the individualized learning provided by a small school like Township prepared him for life after high school.

When asked who his favorite teacher was, John stated, "Mr. Andolina truly provided my peers and myself individualized attention and education about classwork and life that most kids from populated schools do not receive."

John is currently stationed in Destin, FL where he works as Operations Officer of the 65th Special Operations Squadron. He resides there with his wife Ashley, who is a pediatric nurse for the U.S. Airforce, and their four children.
