

Jordan Shroyer graduated from Conemaugh Township Area Middle School/High School in 2012.

Since graduating from CTHS, Jordan has attended two colleges. He started at Juniata College where he was a member of the football team. He then transferred to the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown where he now studies electrical engineering. During this time, Shroyer Electric, Inc. also has employed him. He has worked there for the past two summers and plans to continue working there. Jordan has taught himself how to play the guitar. It has become one of his new favorite hobbies.

When asked who his favorite teacher in high school was, Jordan named Mrs. Santa, because he feels she prepared him for college. He also cited the fact he feels she is not afraid to stand up for what she believes is right.

Jordan's fondest memory at CT was during his senior year when the baseball team overcame a 5-0 deficit in the district V championship game to beat Meyersdale by a score of 7-5.

Jordan currently resides in Johnstown, Pennsylvania.
