

HHS Learning Commons Vision

“A place of teaching and learning, group work, collaboration, creativity, change, inquiry, communication and community.” ASLC

Café tables in a variety of shapes with power running into the table tops to allow students to plug devices in and collaborate.

A multimedia table will allow for small groups work together to create presentations .

Tables that provide a space for students to work individually or combine to work as a class.

Comfortable, flexible seating with power stations running through the area to allow for student collaboration, study or reading.

