

Activity	Response
Careers in a Lifetime Examine the data on the slide provided about the number of jobs people will have in their lifetime. Answer the questions.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Regardless of education, how many jobs will the average person have during their lifetime? 2. Looking at the people who are high school graduates with no further education, what percentage have less than 8 jobs in their lifetime? What percentage have more than 8 jobs? 3. Looking at the people who have a bachelor's degree or more, what percentage have less than 8 jobs in their lifetime? What percentage have more than 8 jobs? 4. What do these statistics say to you about jobs/careers? The average number of jobs for a person used to be 3-4. What do you think has caused this number to increase?
Considerations Make sure to consider your values, strengths, interests, personalities, and experiences when considering what types of jobs you want to do.	Based on your interests and personality type, name two jobs you think would be a good fit for you and explain why.