5 Things Parents Need to Know Today!

1. Motivation Monday - It can often be a bit challenging to see the good during difficult times. Today, we encourage you to be the reason someone smiles today by making a positive, motivating sign. You can either make the sign for your family, a friend, our school, or your neighborhood. Please post a picture of your signs on your social media, tag us, or email your photo to me. (See examples below)

2. Monday Morning Assembly - Please join us for this week's Monday morning assembly led by Kyle Toma, Natalie Downing, Robert Downing, and Ean Isidro. We still need a few more student leaders for upcoming Monday morning assemblies. Please sign-up here if you're interested.

3. Morning/Daily Check-in Meetings - Teachers in grades K-5 have set up check-in meetings for their students, where they will get an opportunity to see their teachers and friends to gather together in a virtual meeting. They will join for prayer and recite the Pledge of Allegiance, our school's mission statement, and SLEs. Teachers will also share any special announcements and reminders for the day. Please check your child's distance learning plan overview and schedule for more details on the days and times of their check-in meeting.

4. Optional Classes with Adjunct Teachers - Be sure to check out the optional classes that some of our adjunct teachers will be offering this week. You can sing along with Mrs. Andersen, brush up your art skills with Mr. Garcia, go on a field trip and/or scavenger hunt with Mrs. Morrissey, exercise with Coach Q, or join Mrs. Marentez for her ukulele live session.

5. Faith, Religion, and Prayer Resources - Explore this new faith-filled section on our Distance Learning page of our school website!

Thank you for your continued understanding and support!
As always, please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.
