

Name

Matthew S. Rankin

Year of Graduation

2003

What have you done since graduating from Port Allegany High School?

I attended Penn State University majoring in forest science. Upon leaving college, I began a career in sales, moving to management a short time later.

For the past 7 years I worked in many levels of management within the hunting and outdoor industry. I was a co-host of Tak Driver TV, a reality based hunting show based on the pursuit channel.

I currently am the owner of Hunt 24/7 Sales and Land Management, I manage recreational land all over the east coast specializing in wildlife habitat improvements. I also license and sell my own line of wildlife seed blends as well as manage my wife's online business.

3 years ago I married a wonderful women named Rebecca, from Harrisburg PA. We have two daughters Lillian and Lilah, and an 8 year old viszla named Brody.

Where do you currently live?

Fort Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania

Who was your favorite teacher in high school? Why were they your favorite?

Mr. Kio in elementary school and Mr. Kriner in High School.

Both had the ability to get through to me with education as well as their subjects of study and both also taught me many valuable lessons about life and being a man.

What is your fondest memory of Port Allegany High School?

Playing sports with friends whom I'm still close with today.
