

Bayshore Christian School Challenged Materials Policy

Reconsideration of Media Center Resources

The school board of Bayshore Christian School has delegated the responsibility for selection and evaluation of media center/educational resources to the school Media Specialist, and has established reconsideration procedures to address concerns about those resources. Completion of this form is the first step in those procedures. If you wish to request reconsideration of school or media center resource, please return this completed form to the Media Specialist. Please attach extra paper if needed.
