

Principal Named for New Queen Creek Unified Elementary School

Schnepf Elementary School set to open July 2021

QUEEN CREEK, AZ - Dr. Perry Berry, Superintendent of Queen Creek Unified School District (QCUSD), has announced Mrs. Faith Orr as the principal of Schnepf Elementary School (SES). The Governing Board approved the hiring of Mrs. Orr at the December 8th Board Meeting. Schnepf Elementary is a new QCUSD school being built in the Harvest at Queen subdivision and will open in July of 2021.

“We are looking forward to having Faith join the QCUSD team and open our newest elementary school,” said Superintendent Berry. “She brings with her a fresh perspective and insight that will benefit our students and the community.”

Mrs. Orr has over two decades of experience in public and private education as an administrator and teacher. This includes 15 years of expertise as an elementary classroom teacher and learning specialist in special education, gifted and talented, and early childhood development programs. Additionally, she has earned two Master’s Degrees in Instructional Leadership and Elementary Education.

“I am excited to welcome students and families to Schnepf Elementary School,” said Mrs. Orr. “To my core, I believe that strong teachers are the hallmark of an excellent school and I look forward to the years ahead as both a team member and school leader in the Queen Creek Unified School District.”

Faith has been married for twenty-seven years and is the mother of three children. She and her husband recently moved to Arizona from Washington State. Faith is a fan of the year-round sunshine and outdoor activities Arizona offers and says she has been “attempting” to learn to play golf with her husband.
