Release:

By submitting this form, I acknowledge my intent is to volunteer or provide contract services for BRAINATION.net. DBA John H. Wood Jr. Public Charter District and Inspire Academies. I will abide by the Code of Conduct. I understand the list below is not exhaustive.

Code of Conduct

- Volunteers cannot be alone with a student. If out of camera range, be sure another adult is present. Always try to be across from a desk or table from a student.
- Volunteers are not to touch a student in a sexual or other inappropriate manner.
- Volunteers are to report suspected abuse to civil authorities and the organization.
- Volunteers are to refrain from giving gifts.

I hereby assume full and complete responsibility for any personal injury and/or property damage that I sustain or cause during my participation as a volunteer or independent contractor. In addition, I hereby release, hold harmless and covenant not to file a suit against the organization and/or any of their employees, volunteers, Board Officers, agents, and successors from any and all loss, liability or claims I may have arising out of my service.

I understand that I may become privy to confidential information about the students of the organization. I agree to maintain the confidentiality of any such information as well as any information about the organization. I will not use any confidential information in any manner that would be detrimental to the organization, and I will avoid any actions that might impair the reputation of the organization.
